Duke's Address

Sorry. No Duke's address. He's a busy guy, what with running the whole Duchy and all. Stay tuned for a fabulous address next time!

Regent's Address

Sorry! There's not one of these either. Regents are busy guys too. Especially when they are anti-paladins! He's probably running around doing evil or something.

From our Champion

Welcome to Pegasus Valley!

We're happy to see that you arrived safely. Please, partake in our many battlegames, ditch battles, and revelations! We here in PV love to socialize, drink, and brawl. We're honored to have you join us.

To ensure that you have a pleasant experience at Amtgard, I've created a list that will help you and others be prepared, be safe, and enjoy the game.

Firstly, check your weapons the day before you plan to attend the park. This will give you plenty of time to repair any that might be a few swings away from hurting someone. Safety is our #1 concern and making sure your weapons are safe goes a long way!

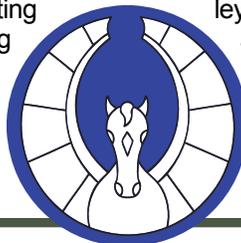

Second, keeping your garb, sashes, spellballs, throwies, and other Amtgard things together will make it much easier to get them all to the park. Invest in a good bag or make one yourself! No one likes showing up to the park and forgetting their garb! We have some loaner garb but it goes fast. Without garb, you can only play Peasant.

Third, have a great attitude! The better your attitude, the more people will enjoy coming out to our park. We have the number one population park in all of Amtgard. This comes from making friends, treating people with respect, and supporting our fellow Amtgarders. Remember that this is a game, but the friendships we make here will last a lifetime.

Thanks for coming to our lands and making Pegasus Valley a better place. If you need anything, please ask. I am happy to help in any way I can. I'm normally at the park at 10:30am on Saturdays and at Aries Wargames for A&S on Thursdays at 6-10pm.

Albuquerque Comic Expo is coming up on June 8th, 9th, and 10th. We have a booth and two panel discussions. Saturday's panel will be at 10am and we will be explaining the rules, classes and fighting aspects of Amtgard. Sunday's panel will be at 12pm we will be explaining the roleplaying, magic and monsters aspect of Amtgard. We also will have a fighting area out front of the booth in order to have all day fighting as well as audience participation. I want to see everyone in their best garb and/or monster garb. The Expo will not be free for Amtgard but if you are willing to work the booth for at least 2 hours on Saturday and Sunday, you get a $10.00 discount. I would also like to see a few Amtgarders entered in the costume contest.

If you have any questions and suggestions please feel free to email me at wsjws@yahoo.com, post it on the PV Facebook (groups/PegasusValley/) or Stab (groups/STABxPEOPLE/), or ask me at Fighter Practice on Monday, A&S on Thursday and Friday or at the park on Saturday.

RECRUITMENT DRIVE!

Tell your friends about Amtgard! The more people that show up, the more fun the park is.

Also, don't let the sun deter you! Make sure to use sunscreen and stay hydrated!

If you know what this is, please tell Baron Exedor. He will be amused.

Prepare yourselves, stalkers of the night. As I am the incoming Guildmaster of Assassins for Dragonspine, I will be assigning deeds of vile darkness to the assassins of our twisted kingdom. Take note of contracts I have assigned you, and prove yourself in my trials, and perhaps you will one day earn the right to wield our ancient relics of darkness against your foes.

Message me to join in the dark trials of the Guild of Assassins in this upcoming reign. This is a chance to share your shadowy actions with the whole kingdom. May your stilettos find their targets in the shadow of midnight!
