Greetings unto all the peoples of the Duchy of Pegasus Valley!

First, I would like to congratulate you on the Food Fight fundraising drive. Through the month of September we raised $529.09 for The Storehouse Greater Albuquerque. The Storehouse relies on charitable donations like ours to provide the more than 2 million meals and 40,000 items of clothing that they give back to the community each year. I am proud of and grateful to our community, and feel really great that our efforts help folks right here at home. However, I'd be absolutely remiss if I didn't take this moment to also brag about Amtgard as a whole. Our kingdom, with groups in New Mexico, Arizona and California, brought in $3,010.00 - which is excellent! But even that very strong showing only earned us a third place finish among Amtgard kingdoms! Golden Plains (with $3,455.97) and Northern Lights (who raised a whopping $7,000) beat us for the top two spots.

In a single month, Amtgard raised $27,025.31 for food pantries worldwide!

Next, I wanted to talk a bit about the ways that Amtgard extends beyond Saturday afternoons. Most of you are aware by now of Fighter Practice on Monday nights, which has recently been relocated from Taylor park to Johnson Field at UNM and starts at 6pm. Some of you are aware of Tuesday Night Arts and Sciences, which is being held in the same location as coronation: Center for Health Sciences Education at UNM, room B-116, from 6:30-8:30ish. I hope lots of you are aware that Inferno hosts a combo A&S & Fighter Practice Friday evenings from 5-9 at her home. These are great ways get one on one instruction, and get some really useful feedback to improve your skills - that's not always easy get during the park day.

We're doing a lot more than that this reign, though. As we move into winter, and days get shorter and colder, we'll be hosting regular revels. Revels give us a chance to get out of the cold, share a meal, enjoy some amtgard-ish entertainment, and generally hang out together. The first revel will be next weekend, at the same place where we held coronation and arts and sciences. This first revel will have an eclectic menu (Chicken Makhani (a mild tomato-cream curry), beef chili with beans, and spanakopita for a vegetarian option) with drinks and dessert, all for $5. But that's not all! The second sunday of each month we're planning a group trip up to visit our friends in Wyrmspire. If you'd like to carpool up there (either as a driver or passenger), we'll be talking about it both this Saturday and next - don't be shy!

Note from the Prime Minister

Right now PV has $1778 in the bank and $65 in the cash box. The food fight was a great success! I'm also including a Dues Paid list! -Inferno

Editor's Note: I'm not getting very many submissions to the newsletter. That disappoints me since I'm pretty sure that at least some of you are wonderfully creative people! Such a shame that I can't put anything in the newsletter from you! SUBMIT THINGS TO THE NEWSLETTER! DO EET!
