Duke's Address

Sorry... Not this time either. Keep hoping though!

Regent's Address

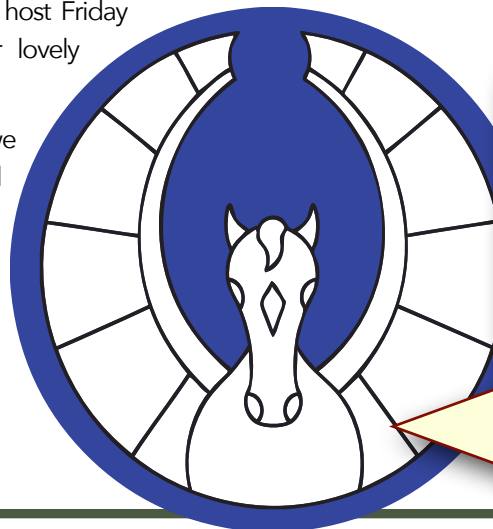

Greetings populace!

Thanks to the many fighters, artists and artisans of Pegasus Valley who participated in our Dragonmaster and Weaponmaster tournaments, and especially congratulations to Baldur who swept both our cultural and fighting events. For those of you looking for even stiffer competition, your next chance to test yourselves is January 19th, at our kingdom's Dragonmaster tournament. To potentially earn the coveted spot of Dragonmaster, you would need to enter five items in five categories, but it's an excellent opportunity to have experienced judges give you scoring and feedback even if you only enter a single item. The kingdom Weaponmaster tournament and midreign feast will be held the following weekend, January 26th. If you are able to travel for these events, I strongly encourage it. And if you would like to enter, but have concerns about being able to travel, please don't hesitate to ask me for help.

Arts and Sciences on Tuesdays will resume January 15th, please see me or check in on our facebook group for class schedules. We have a lot of exciting things coming up, and of course Inferno continues to host Friday night A&S/Fighter Practices at her lovely home.

Finally, we'll need volunteers as we approach crown qualifications and coronation events. Just put your name on the volunteer sheet when you sign in, and we'll find a job for you.

From the Champion:

Greeting everyone. Champion Alucard here. Hope everyone had great holidays and got everything you wanted. Now for what I want. I want everyone to keep up the good work! I think personally that weapon safety and overall honour on the battlefield is at an all time high. Let's keep it that way. I'm proud that you all are making my job as champion as easy as it is. Remember weapons checks the first Saturday of each month. Let's have fun and be safe out there!

Ok, People. This is our newsletter! It's meant to be a community effort, I think. Actually, I'm pretty sure. If you have anything you'd like in the next (or the ones after that, even), please either email your submission to PVHorsefeathers@gmail.com or send it to me on Facebook or even bring it to me the last Saturday of the month at the park. I can put in artwork, announcements, ads, poetry... Really, I'm pretty lenient with content. Thanks for reading!!

Election Notice

Board of Director elections are today! If you wanted to run for a seat on the BOD and haven't declared already, too bad. You had to have declared two weeks ago! However, if you want to vote and are dues-paid, you can!!

From the Prime Minister

Greetings! I just wanted to thank those of you who voted for me in the PM election. If you didn't vote for me, well, at least you're reading the newsletter.

A little business first. We are still working on getting all of our funds from the old bank account to the new one. Since I have taken possession of the petty cash, we have gained $5 from drink sales, and have paid $100 to the US Treasury in order to (re)gain our tax exempt status.

Next, V8 playtesting. I think we should have more of it. It's new, it's probably fun if we'd give it a chance. It's certainly not worthy of all the enmity that it is receiving around here. It seems easier to understand than the current rules, so I'm not sure what the problem is. When we stop being willing to learn, we cease to grow as people. -- Baron Exedor Wayfel

If you don't know who these fellows are, it is truly a shame. If you don't know, ask around, surely someone will know.
