DukeRegent's Address

Greetings unto the populace of Pegasus Valley.

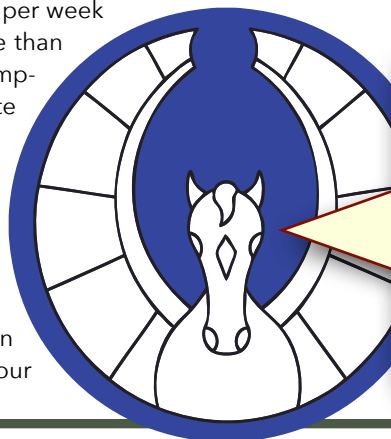

I had not expected to address you today as Duchess. As regent I've grown accustomed to reminding you all of upcoming events and encouraging you to attend, but in the wake of two of our officers (my partner this reign, Duke Fu, and our erstwhile BOD secretary, Amatiel) recently deciding to resign their positions, I should say a few more serious words.

But first, the things I love telling you about, as is my habit.

Next Saturday evening (5:30 at the HSC, $6 admission) we'll be celebrating this reign coming to a close and a new reign beginning. It will structured more like a social hour than a traditional feast - we'll have a ton of finger foods, and a couple of hearty soup-type-things (and bowls to eat them from), so bring your smiles and your appetite, but don't worry about bringing your feast gear. It's going to be a real good time, we really hope you can make it.

Though I'll be out of office, there are a few other events that should be on your radar if they aren't already. March 13th is Spring War, way out in La Grange, TX. Our friends to the North in Wyrmspire will hold their coronation on March 23rd. Our kingdom will hold their crown qualifications tournaments on April 6th. If you're thinking about competing in cultural events, you should be gearing up right about now. If you're thinking about going for the fighting events, maybe now's a good time to see if you can hit up fighter practice, or squeeze in a trip to one of our nearby chapters for Sunday sword swinging. Finally, this year will be the 30th Gathering of the Clans. It seems silly to mention an event that will happen in July when we've barely started March, but lots of folks have budget anxiety about events. If you put away $5 per week between now and then, you'll have more than $100 without having to hurt yourself scrimping and saving in July for gas and gate fees.

So, on to the serious stuff. If you talk to any of our members about Amtgard / Life balance, you're likely to hear the phrase "real life comes first." And while that's absolutely true, I want you all to consider how many people there are in our park who just want to help. Talk to your fellow Amtgarders when you're feeling stressed or pressured. It's easy to overcommit to things that you're enthusiastic about, but you don't have to keep that weight on your shoulders until you break... help us help you.

Lady Isoud MacArdry

From the Prime Minister:

Greetings again!

It's another month, with another newsletter! I do have a bit of PM business regarding the sign-in sheets. If I can't read your name, you don't get credit. Please make sure that you sign in legibly so that I can enter your credit for you.

Not much else to say. All of our funds have been consolidated at the new credit union. As I write this, the amount hasn't changed from last month, however, I should be doing some reimbursements this week.

Stay safe and have fun!

-- Baron Exedor Wayfel

Got any ideas for the Monarchy?

Tell us!! Most of the monarchy is approachable (except Exedor, maybe) Lady Isoud is the current DukeRegent but will be turning the group over to the newly elected Duke Shadow and Regent Dru-Kara at next week's Coronation Feast! Please attend. Or else.

Don't test us.

Welcome First years!

As we look forward to this year, we will be learning the defense against the dark arts, potion making, and Pegasus Valley will be hosting the Quidditch Cup!

We will all be sorting into houses next week. This is an exciting event and we look forward to seeing everyone at the park. Remember to call your friends and remind them to come out, it's going to be a blast.

In closing, I would like to thank everyone for their support and I look forward to working with everyone to make this reign super awesome!

-- Headmaster Shadow

To the Populace:

Thank you for electing me as your next Regent. My goal this reign is to assist each of you in making your own things to play our game. I will do my best to teach or secure instructors for our Arts & Sciences classes.

Why would I want to do this? Well, I believe that you will enjoy Amtgard more if you are participating in creating the fun. Also, I want to encourage all of you to partake in local and kingdom Arts & Sciences competitions so that we can promote our Duchy.

The next competition is the Crown Qualifications for the Kingdom of Dragonspine. It is the weekend of April 6th in the Proper (Las Cruces, NM). I would like to flood them with our awesomeness, and to that end we will be arranging for caravans and crash space. For those of you unable to travel, I will happily convey your entries to our Kingdom for competition.

Oh, I forgot to mention something very important. Things you make involving our Harry Potter theme will garner points for your assigned House.
