Amtgard Mothers

Dedicated to our mothers, past and present, but especially Katherine Branford, Talifer's mom, who inspired the concept for this poem just over 2 years ago. -- Dru-Kara

There is no one kinder in the land.
 She always has a helping hand.
 She'll drive you to the farthest feast,
 and pay for weapons to kill a beast.

She may not take the field for fun,
 but she'll reeve a game to watch you run.
 You may yell at her 'til you're face is blue,
 but you'll get a hug when the day is through.

As a regular member or as mundane
 she adds her charm to every reign.
 Her willingness to sign your waiver says to me you owe a favor.

After all that she has done for you to make this game more fun and true is plenty reason to be happy even when your mom is sappy.

Amtgard moms make park days grand by bringing families to the land.
 I thank each mother who gives her soul to make our LARPing exploits whole.

From the Prime Minister

Greetings!

Elections for my job are soon! Be sure to declare today to GMR F'lar if you are interested!

In addition to being PM, you also get a seat on the Board of Directors and get a say on how things are run! It's a pretty good deal. I encourage you to give it a go! You do need to be at least 18 years old, though, for legal reasons.

Also, special thanks to Dru-Kara for getting our PRC paperwork and taxes taken care of!

The bank account is still at $1559.

Stay safe and have fun!
